ATTORNEY'S FEES AND COSTS DECISION<sup>1</sup>

On August 30, 2013, Joanna King filed a petition seeking compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program.<sup>2</sup> Thereafter, on January 21, 2016, the parties filed a stipulation settling the case and detailing the amount to be awarded to Petitioner. I subsequently issued a decision finding the parties' stipulation to be reasonable and granting Petitioner an award as outlined in the stipulation.

<sup>2</sup> The National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program comprises Part 2 of the National Childhood Vaccine Injury Act of 1986, Pub. L. No. 99-660, 100 Stat. 3755 (codified as amended at 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-10 through 34 (2012)).

On February 16, 2016, the parties filed another stipulation, this time regarding attorney's fees and costs. Petitioner requests reimbursement of attorney's fees and costs in the amount of $49,500. This amount represent sums to which Respondent does not object. In addition, and in compliance with General Order No. 9, Petitioner's counsel represents that Petitioner did not incurred out-of-pocket, litigation-related expenses in conjunction with this proceeding.

I approve the requested amount for attorney's fees and costs as reasonable. Accordingly, an award of $49,500 should be made in the form of a check payable jointly to Petitioner and Petitioner's counsel, Danielle A. Strait, Esq., for all attorney's fees and costs. Payment of this amount represents all attorney's fees and costs available under 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-15(e). In the absence of a motion for review filed pursuant to RCFC Appendix B, the clerk of the court SHALL ENTER JUDGMENT in accordance with the terms of the parties' stipulation.<sup>3</sup>

IT IS SO ORDERED.

<sup>3</sup> Pursuant to Vaccine Rule 11(a), the parties may expedite entry of judgment by each filing (either jointly or separately) a notice renouncing their right to seek review.
